KNIGHT PROPERTY GROUP

Introduction

At Knight Property Group we pride ourselves on the high standards of our work. Whether renovating existing buildings or developing new commercial parks, we strive to meet and exceed not only our own expectations but those of our tenants and stakeholders.

In this book, we detail current and recently completed projects and share case studies of several of our past developments. We have also detailed a selection of the stakeholders with whom we have worked and of the tenants who have made Knight Property Group their home.

Because we firmly believe that all young people deserve the support to build fulfilling futures, Knight Property Group works with a number of charitable organisations. Details of our recent sponsorship highlights are included in this book.

KNIGHT PROPERTY GROUP

Knight Property Group is a proactive developer of high quality commercial property. Established in the north east of Scotland in 1987, the company has built a solid reputation for the development of quality, contemporary properties in unrivalled locations, created to suit a diverse range of occupiers.

With a range of properties available for lease or purchase, and several future developments in the pipeline, there could be a Knight development which suits your business requirements. At Knight, our track record speaks for itself. www.knightpropertygroup.co.uk.

SCOTTISH DEVELOPER OF THE YEAR

Knight Property Group was named "Developer of the Year" at the prestigious Scottish Property Awards 2009 hosted by Property Week.

Knight Property Group contested the title alongside some of the country's biggest names in property, namely BAM Properties (formerly HBG Properties), Buccleuch, Macdonald Estates, Premier Property Group and Scottish Widows.

Deals were concluded during the period with the Abu Dhabi National Oil Company - Taqa Bratani, Bristow Helicopters, Total E+P, Seabrokers, Eurocopter, BlueSky Business Space and Fugro Improv. Furthermore, both the single largest office letting and private sale were concluded by Knight Property Group at its Westpoint Business Park development.

James Barrack said:
"Everyone at Knight Property Group is proud and honoured to receive this accolade which was voted for by fellow professionals in the industry.

"We would like to thank all our tenants, property agents, professionals, contractors and suppliers who have worked closely with us over this time and helped make this award a reality."

INDUSTRIALIST OF THE YEAR 2013 JAMES BARRACK

James Barrack, chairman and managing director of Knight Property Group and Chess Group, was named as the 36th Grampian Industrialist of the year.

The annual award, organised by Junior Chamber International (JCI) Aberdeen, recognises outstanding commercial success.

JCI Aberdeen President David Derbyshire said:
"James has led and grown Knight Property Group and Chess Group over a 15-year period, both organically and through joint venture. James represents the importance and strength of family businesses in the north-east economy, which is a great tradition of this award. In his business achievements, as well as his commitment to The Prince's Trust in Scotland, James represents what the Grampian Industrialist Award is all about."

James added:
"I am delighted. Above all, this is recognition of the hard work and long-term commitment of the team at Knight and Chess over many years. It also highlights the importance of property development in the local economy as an enabler of growth for other sectors."

THE GORDON HIGHLANDERS MUSEUM

Knight Property Group has pledged a significant sum of money over a period of four years to The Gordon Highlanders Museum to enable them to deliver their Education and Outreach Programme.

The Gordon Highlanders Museum is recognised by the Ministry of Defence as one of the foremost military museums in the UK and is the only military museum in Scotland to be graded a 5* Visit Scotland attraction.

The Education and Outreach Programme, run by one full time staff member and ten dedicated volunteers, attracts participation from over 50 primary schools and 15 secondary schools each year. The programme includes workshops, which have been devised in conjunction with teachers, outreach activities including events and care home visits, and placements for young people seeking to develop workplace skills.

STRATHALLAN HOCKEY

Knight Property Group has offered its support to Strathallan School, Perthshire by sponsoring both its girls and boys hockey teams on their ten day European tour.

James Barrack said, “As a former pupil of the school myself, I am proud to support its sporting activities. I believe that sport is a key part of students’ personal development and I wish both teams luck for their matches.”
